SPRING GREETINGS - If you're like us, you've been waiting forever for the weather to change. It was one long Winter, but it looks like the time for backyard grilling and lazy days at the beach have finally arrived! That means that Randolph Community Television is gearing up for end of the school year activities and all of Randolph's exciting Summer events. Look for some new volunteers joining our ranks. ROBERT ARMSTRONG, JACK BETTERMAN, MARGARET BRENNAN, TERRANCE EDWARDS, SHAWN TAYLOR, & RUSSEL TYLER have completed their first workshop series and are already developing their skills...WELCOME ABOARD!

School Activities - You may think you're ready for Summer, but just imagine what the Randolph Public School students are feeling. Spring is a busy time in the Randolph Schools and many end of the year activities are planned, culminating in this year's graduation from Randolph High School. All of our volunteers are encouraged to donate their time and help with these productions. We at RCTV want to preserve these special events for all of Randolph's terrific students. Please contact us if you are available and if you need any additional information:

- Thursday, May 5 - Spring Concert @ 7pm
- Wednesday, May 11 - RHS Talent Show @ 7pm
- Friday, May 20 - RHS "Randy Awards @ 7pm
- Tuesday, May 24 - RHS Scholarship Night @ 6:30pm
- Sunday, June 5 - High School Graduation @ 1pm

Senior Video - RCTV volunteers (and graduating seniors!), LEAH and BEKAH FELLMAN are hard at work putting together this year's Senior Video. They have been editing this project for many weeks now and it's sure to be an exciting recap of the school year. This year's Randolph High School Seniors are in for a real treat!

Concerts on the Gazebo - Starting in June and continuing throughout the Summer, the Randolph Community Arts Council brings terrific bands from around Massachusetts to the Williams Gazebo in Randolph. These Tuesday night concerts are a great time for children and families alike and Randolph Community Television will continue to bring them home to our viewing audience! We bring our production van down weekly to cover the Gazebo Concerts LIVE and then replay them throughout the Summer months on RCTV Channel 8. We cover these events with the help of our volunteers. If you are an RCTV volunteer and would like to join us on Tuesday evenings for great music, good times, and a wonderful learning experience, please call to join this year's crew!

The Night Before the 4th of July Parade & Fireworks - The streets are closed, the people are out in droves, and excitement is in the air...it's Randolph's most exciting event of the year, the Annual Night Before the 4th of July Parade and Fireworks. Fire trucks, Corvettes, bands from all over the country and beautiful floats head down North Main St. to the cheers of Randolph residents. When the sun goes down, one of the top fireworks displays on the South Shore lights up the skies over Randolph High School. Every year, Randolph Community Television starts preparing early in the morning to bring the festivities live to our viewers. Announcers BRIAN HOWARD and LARRY AZER give an informative and entertaining look in front of and behind the scenes of the parade and fireworks as Randolph celebrates Independence Day. This is traditionally the biggest and most exciting shoot of the year...don't miss it! RCTV volunteers sign up now!!!

Video Workshops - RCTV offers FREE television production workshops to Randolph residents. If you are willing to volunteer your time to produce television programming about Randolph then call RCTV for more information. Learn about your town and get involved!
