Hello from RCTV! - Good citizens of Randolph, please adjust your television to Channels 8, 10, and 22! We hope you had a wonderful Holiday Season and have been enjoying the programming RCTV has been bringing to your home. Our staff and volunteers have been working hard to bring you the best in high school sports, community celebrations, municipal meetings, and scholastic performances throughout the winter and television coverage will continue into the spring.

Brian Howard
RCTV Sports Announcer

Henry Cooke, IV & Ken Simmons
"Wandering Randolph" & "Beneath The Elms"

Calling All Residents of Randolph - Have you ever wondered what it's like to work on a television show? Do you want to know how to use a video camera? Are you interested in local activities, politics, and sports? Well, your opportunity has arrived! RCTV will be having an Introductory Volunteer Workshop in February 2006. This is your chance to learn television production skills, work as a valuable RCTV team member, and bring tv viewers community coverage in the Town of Randolph. We are looking for enthusiastic, responsible residents of the town to become a part of the Randolph Community Television Volunteer Staff. There is no prior experience necessary, only a willingness to learn and work hard. If you are an interested Randolph resident (age 18 & over) and think you have what it takes, then contact RCTV (see information below) and sign up for our television production workshop series.

Upcoming Events -

- School Committee Meetings - January 4th, 9th & 18th.
Meetings held at the Randolph High School TV Studio LIVE at 7:30pm.
- "Candidates Forum 2006"
Sponsored by the Randolph Chamber of Commerce in March 2007.
- Randolph Town Election 2006
Coming in April 2007.

BLOOPERS/RETROSPECTIVE -

Can you believe it? Almost 9 years of RCTV's coveted series "Beneath The Elms" and "Wandering Randolph" and it's still going strong. Well, we decided to take a humorous look at all these years in our Bloopers/Retrospective which is currently showing on Channel 8. In it you'll see hosts KEN SIMMONS and HENRY COOKE, IV flub lines, trip, joke around, and most importantly, enjoy bringing our viewers an inside look at the history and happenings in the Town of Randolph. Prepare to be treated to behind-the-scenes action, some of their funniest moments, and an homage to Ken's favorite saying: "HOLY MACKEREL!" You'll even see Ken and Henry's first appearances in front of the RCTV cameras, just in case you missed them the first time around. It's the perfect addition to your holiday viewing and we at RCTV hope it brings as big a smile to your face as we had while putting it together! Look for new episodes of "Beneath The Elms" and "Wandering Randolph" in the near future.

THANK YOU TO RCTV VOLUNTEERS! If you should contact RCTV. Robert Armstrong, Larry Azer, Margaret Brennan, Chuck Christian, Henry Cooke, IV, Jean Duddy, Paul F. Duddy, Paul F. Duddy, Jr., Aaron Fellman, Gordon George, Marvin George, Brian Howard, Douglas Krabbenhoft, Thomas LaBelle, Alex Phillips, George Reyna, Jerry Richman, Ken Simmons, Sheila Swanwick & Steve Toomey.

Thank you for all your dedication, support and hard work!
