Summer 2010

More Volunteers Enter the Doors!

Randolph Community Television (RCTV) welcomes our newest volunteers: Dennis Ogbewi, Frantz Simon, Brian White and son Robert, Louie Blackiemore and Sonya Avant-Sanders!

Whether it's a short public service announcement, television series or full blown studio shoot, RCTV provides a full range of Video Production Workshops and ongoing

Training Classes that will get anyone from beginner to advanced up and running with a completed project within a short period of time.

A workshop or class requires no previous television experience and are available to new and current volunteers of RCTV who will be creating video for public access Channels 8, 10 or 22.

Who is Randolph Community Television?

Randolph Community Television is a non-profit community media center located in Randolph, Massachusetts.

Since 1998 RCTV has been offering training, equipment and support in the art of television production to seniors, teens, individuals, groups and non-profit organizations. The goal is to train the people of Randolph to use the facility to develop their own TV programming.

The shows are seen on one of our three P.E.G. channels, Channel 8 for Public Access, Channel 22 for Educational Access and Channel 10 for Government Access programming.

Any individual, group, non-profit organization or business within Randolph is eligible volunteer and become involved.
