Your Link to the Community

Summer 2011

New Face at RCTV

New Volunteers

David Ciccariella is the new Program Director at Randolph Community Television (RCTV). A graduate of Bridgewater State University's communication program, David brings great passion and energy to RCTV. David is highly skilled at non-linear editing as well as multi-camera productions.

Randolph Community Television (RCTV) welcomes our newest volunteers: Mary Bulman, Daniel Jordan, Steven Saragian, and Cynthia Strong. RCTV provides a full range of Video Production Workshops. A workshop or class requires no previous television experience and are available to new and current volunteers of RCTV.

Recent Events in the Community

Randolph High School graduation ceremony took place on June 6 at Lombardo's. RCTV was on hand to cover this special event with a 4-camera production. Thanks to our volunteers; Brian L. Liss, Rubens Pierre, and Matt Fitzgerald.

Parade Before the 4th was RCTV's biggest production of the year. This live van shoot was very successful due to the help of the amazing volunteers.

The parade started at 7 PM. RCTV prepared very early, setting up at noon with volunteers rolling cables and setting up video cameras.

Concerts at the Gazebo has been bringing the community together. These concerts bring both RCTV's new and experienced volunteers. Working together to make each concert memorable and fun!

Thank you, Larry Azer, Brian Howard, Harris Bloomwald, Manuel Galvao, Daniel Jordan, Derek Lagasse, Brian L. Liss, Rubens Pierre, and Steven Saragian for all your hard work to make the parade coverage possible.

Who is Randolph Community Television?

Randolph Community Television is a non-profit community media center located in Randolph, Massachusetts.

Since 1998 RCTV has been offering training, equipment and support in the art of television production to seniors, teens, individuals, groups and non-profit organizations. The goal is to train the people of Randolph to use the facility to develop their own TV programming.

The shows are seen on one of our three P.E.G. channels, Channel 8 for Public Access, Channel 22 for Educational Access and Channel 10 for Government Access programming.

Any individual, group, non-profit organization or business within Randolph is eligible volunteer and become involved.
