Hello from RCTV!- We hope that you had a hot Summer and are ready for a cool Fall. RCTV continues to move forward in its completion of the new television studio. Progress has been made on our new production facility. Custom-built shelving was added over the summer thus giving our tape library a new home. Also, a new lighting grid is almost completed for the studio lights. Equipment maintenance was performed and every piece of video gear has been finely tuned. We are closer to completion and, as before, your patience is appreciated. If any of you would like to view the studio, feel free to call our staff and we will set up a time to give you a tour of the facilities.

The future of RCTV continues to look very bright. As always, we look forward to working with you to bring Randolph events and its people to the small screen.

"Beneath the Elms"- RCTV volunteer, Ken Simmons, hosts a new show, "Beneath the Elms," featuring a unique perspective around Randolph. The first episode is a tour of Randolph's historical Stetson Hall. An interview with Henry M. Cooke IV, trustee of the Stetson School Fund, proves informative and provides viewers with the historical background of Stetson Hall. This is an interesting show that should not be missed! Watch for future episodes.

Blue Devils Football season has begun!

RCTV and its volunteers are proud to bring you the Randolph High School Blue Devils Varsity Football games! The RCTV mobile production van is utilizing a new slow-motion instant replay system as well as a wireless video hand-held camera. This will bring the "superbowl" look to our home town sports coverage. This makes the three-camera production as exciting to videotape as it is to watch! RCTV is looking for qualified camera operators and announcers. If you would like to volunteer give RCTV a call!

Gazebo Concerts - Rain or shine, this past summer, RCTV brought you LIVE coverage of the Gazebo concerts, from North Street in Randolph. This three-camera production featured some of the best concerts Randolph has ever seen! An international "Arts in the Park" finished off the season with many residents enjoying exciting cultural activities! Thanks to volunteers: Tom Burke, Jim Cassidy, Beth Difranza, Aaron Fellman, Jonathan Galina, Gerry Hershoff, Oscar Jackson, Douglas Krabbenhoft, David, LaCivita, Alex Phillips, Glenn Phillips, Ken Simmons and Bob Stone who made this years Gazebo concerts a huge success!
