Hello from RCTV! May flowers are starting to bloom and Randolph Community Television is getting ready for an active Summer. Things are progressing at the studio with the addition of a custom console in the control room. This piece will begin to fill up with equipment as we get closer to choosing studio cameras. We've also received two custom consoles for our editing suites. These consoles store our non-linear editing equipment and make it very easy to stay organized.

RCTV would like to say hello to our newest volunteers who have recently completed the television production workshops. We are looking forward to them becoming active members of our team. Welcome Alex Awoke, Louisdor Gay Jr., Robert Irwin, and Sheila Swanwick.

RHS Sports- RCTV and its volunteer crew were very busy this past season. The Randolph High School Boys Varsity Basketball team fought an uphill battle with some tremendous wins and heartbreaking losses. The RHS Girls Varsity Basketball team had a terrific season winning many games and receiving a playoff berth for their efforts in the State MIAA Tournament. Although knocked out in the second round, the girls played their heart out and really brought us some exciting basketball. The Blue Devils Basketball teams were very active and RCTV was able to cover more games this year than ever before! RCTV was also able to bring viewers some Junior Varsity, Freshman, and even some Randolph Community Middle School basketball games.

Chuck Christian "the voice of Randolph Basketball" announced many games throughout the season with his partner Scott Bascom. Also, Paul Duddy brought some old school terminology and insight to the game as he called it along with Eddy Duddy and David Carty. They were even able to cover the tournament games as the Lady Blue Devils made a gallant run for the championship. Together with their volunteer crew...Paul Duddy Jr. (and his amazing, hand-crafted monitor stand), Alex Phillips and Aaron Fellman...they covered a very eventful season. Congratulations everyone! See you next year!

Town Election 2002- RCTV covered more Political Forums than any other year and we even had our own debate from Randolph Town Hall. RCTV Program Director Anders Geering worked with Brian Howard and Barry Fellman to produce a Selectman Candidates Debate and School Committee Candidates Debate. These debates were held in the Randolph Town Hall and were hosted by Senator Brian Joyce and Randolph Town Clerk Brian Howard. RCTV volunteers Jean Duddy, Oscar Jackson, and Abdrahman Oladigbolu helped with these debates.

RCTV was also on hand for the Randolph Chamber of Commerce/Junior Woman's Club Candidates Forum. This event was live on tv and viewers were able to call in and ask questions to the candidates during the broadcast. Thanks to our volunteers Rianardo Ellis, Jean Duddy, Paul Duddy, Paul Duddy Jr., Eddie Duddy, and David Carty.

Finally, RCTV brought you live results from Randolph Town Hall on election night as the ballots rolled into the Town Clerk's office. RCTV Reporter Doug Krabbenhoft kept the audience up to date on the results from each precinct. Upstairs, Ted Rubin talked about the days activities and chatted with candidates. This year's election coverage was a great success thanks to Robert Stone, Rianardo Ellis, Robert Irwin, and Aaron Fellman.

Upcoming Events- Plenty of happenings are going on this Spring and Summer and RCTV will be there. Please contact us if you would like to volunteer for any of these events:
