Summer 2022

Randolph's Annual Night Before the 4th of July Parade

After two years, Randolph's July 3rd parade was back, and bigger than ever before! This is Randolph Community Television's biggest production of the year. It was six camera production and aired live on television. RCTV wants to thank all of the volunteers for making it possible: Harris Bloomwald, Kyle Clifton, Derek Forman, Randolph Town Manager Brian Howard, Brian L. Liss, John Oborsky, Carolyn Ostman, Ben Schoenfeld, Sam Schoenfeld, Rachel Smith, Janil Stephens, Jesse Stephens, and Caleb Slotnick.

Juneteenth Celebration of Freedom Event

RCTV volunteer Barry Reckley covered the first annual Juneteenth Celebration of Freedom event. It was a two-day event in Randolph. The first day was held at the Randolph Intergenerational Community Center where there were speeches, live performances, and local vendors selling multicultural products. The second day was a flag raising ceremony at Randolph Town Hall. This was a wonderful event that brought the community of Randolph together.
